

BATH 2019

ENGLAND

What to see in Bath

Roman Baths Museum

They are the most famous baths of the city.

The best time to visit them in summer is the early morning mid-week, because they are visited by many people.

The ticket price includes the audio-guide.

Bath Bus Company

It provides a city tour on a bus which stops approximately every twenty at the city's main attractions.

There's also a second route, the Skyline Tour, which goes to Prior Park and allows you to have an overview of the entire city from above.

Tickets for the service are valid for both routes.

There are also Tour Operators which offer boat trips along the River Rapon, like the Avon Cruising and the Bath City Boat Trips.

Alexandra Park

Alexandra Park is the best park to get fantastic panoramic view of Bath.

Its meadows and trees create a relaxing atmosphere. There are picnic areas and public baths; admission is free.

Prior Park

The Prior Park Landscape Garden is located inside a large valley with a magnificent view of the city. Along the tortuous paths you can find virtual tours which show you the garden's appearance in 1764.

At the bottom of the valley you can walk through the famous Palladino bridge and discover many surprising features.

Excursions

The journey includes two trips of the length of a day to:

- London, there are many markets which offer everything including new ideas of entertainment and interest;
- Oxford, city located in the hilly region of the Oxfordshire, where the river Cherwell meets the Thames, is one of the main touristic and cultural centers of Great Britain, home of the famous university.

Salisbury

London

Oxford

Bristol

It also provides two half-day trips to:

- Salisbury, a picturesque city located on the banks of the river Avon. It is famous for the typical medieval atmosphere that surrounds it;
- Bristol, a center of culture and creativity, with many art galleries, theaters, design studios and companies in the media sector.
